

Hosted by: Robert Stack (16 x 60')

This critically acclaimed PBS series chronicles the historical rise of international organized crime and its leadership. Travel to Europe, Russia, Latin America, Asia, Italy, and cities in the US, to see the stories of passion, upheaval, despair, and tragedy.

Each episode looks at one Family or Dynasty and shows how that group operates, and its power infrastructure. It chronicles law enforcement's battles with organized crime, and how it continues to wage war against increasing odds.
