Repo Men Uncensored (2 x 60')

Repo Men Uncensored will take you to the front lines of the ongoing war between car lenders and delinquent debtors. Witness firsthand behind-the-scenes planning and successful execution of a wide variety of auto repossessions

Go on ride-along, high-risk, night auto repossessions. See all the close calls and the latest technology, including the development of a covert cache of electronic anti-security devices used in all kinds of hostile situations. Repo guys agree, "Sooner or later you'll find yourself confronted with an angry 'repossessee' with a gun, but most times they're only bluffing. The most important thing to remember is, if the gun's shaking, run."

You'll also follow a variety of other repo men from different parts of the country as they prepare for and carry out their high stakes missions. Surveillance, hidden cameras, disguises, extensive planning, sheer instinct and sometimes partnering with Federal Marshals are all a part of the process when devising the perfect hit.
