The Trip

"The Trip" is a blend of the hip horror of the mega hit "I Know What You Did Last Summer" with Steven Spielberg's suspense classic "Duel". Combining several popular genres, "The Trip" is a white-knuckle thrill ride teen horror road picture. This is an exciting project for all of us involved, as it will our first action feature film shot on 24p.

Story Summary

Cess Bowman, 17, joins her older sister, Devan, and her college friends for a fun filled, free spirited, road trip through the isolation of the Mojave Desert en route to a Spring Break party in Oracle, Arizona. Trouble finds them on their first night out. At a desolate roadside motel, one of the boys has a casual one-night stand with an exotic stranger. What seems adventurous and daring quickly becomes precarious and dangerous. A truck gives chase and all hell breaks loose. Is it the woman's husband? Boyfriend? Or have they unlocked something else, something more deadly than anyone could begin to imagine? A trip through the desert becomes a trip to the other side. Who will be the last one standing?
